EXPERIENCE

Enterprise Reporter

Nashville Banner, Nashville, Tn. | Aug. 2025 - Present

- Reports on community issues sourced from conversations with residents across Nashville.
- Leads coverage of South Nashville through the publication's zip code reporting project, while highlighting the lived experiences of Nashvillians living in a low-income neighborhood and holding the city's leaders and agencies accountable for effective change.

Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Reporting Fellow

The 19th News, Remote | Oct. 2024 - Aug. 2025

- One of three reporting fellows in a competitive yearlong program that offers a cohort of five journalists from HBCUs mentorship and professional development in reporting, audience and product.
- Pitched and produced in-depth stories centering race, gender and politics that amplify the voices and nuanced experiences of Black and refugee women.

Education and Politics Reporter

Times-News, Twin Falls, Id. | Jan. - Sep. 2024

- Covered education and politics for an audience of 31,000+ in Magic Valley with a focus on the impact of state policies on rural school districts and libraries, and grassroots efforts to uplift students and families.
- Expanded coverage of Black and LGBTQ+ communities with articles on issues they faced in a conservative region.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Editor-in-Chief

Tiger's Roar Newspaper, Savannah, Ga. | Aug. 2022 - Dec. 2023

- Rebuilt the student newspaper during COVID, leading a team of reporters to re-establish coverage of news, culture and events in Savannah and on campus.
- Curated the paper's newsletter, and hosted events and writing workshops to increase the paper's readership and awareness across Savannah State University.

Digital Producer

Atlanta News First, Atlanta, Ga. | May - July 2023

- Wrote articles, from breaking news to feature stories, on the digital content team.
- Produced live coverage of events, such as Juneteenth and Look Up Atlanta, the largest fireworks display in the Southeast.

Reporter

Savannah Morning News, Savannah, Ga. | Jan. 2022 - May 2023

- Wrote breaking news, entertainment, crime and business stories on Savannah and wrote for "The 912" newsletter, which celebrated the city's Black art and culture.
